MANAGER COMMENT

During July, optimism over Covid-19 vaccinations and the reopening of economies was overshadowed by fears of the more contagious Delta variant, which in turn increased concerns that the path to 'normality' may be bumpier than previously expected. Despite this, most nations ended the month on a positive note, including South Africa, surprisingly.

China was an exception to this due to the stricter regulations imposed on its educational and technology sectors, which weighed on its results for the month. For developed and emerging markets, the emphasis continued to be on vaccinating their populations, hoping to protect people from new variants of the coronavirus.

Global equity markets notched up another positive month in July, recording gains for a sixth consecutive month. The MSCI World Index returned 1,72% month-on-month (m/m) in US dollar and 4,22% in rand. On a regional basis, US equities outperformed the rest of the market, European equities managed modest gains. In contrast, Japanese equities ended July at the bottom of its recent rage due to equity market sentiment dominated by increases in Covid-19 infections in Japan, which recently exceeded 10 000 daily infections for the first time. The S&P 500 (US$) was up 2,38%, the FTSE (€) and Euro Stoxx 50 (£) were up 0,53% and 0,75% respectively, and lastly, the Nikkei 225 (¥) was down 5,23%.

Emerging equity markets continued to lag developed equity markets in July, with weakness in Chinese stock markets most notable. The MSCI Emerging Markets Index was down 7,04% m/m in US dollar and 4,77% in rand.

Despite being in the news headlines for the wrong reasons in July, the South African equity market managed to end the month higher, with the FTSE/JSE All Share Index closing at 4,18%, with mining companies driving the majority of returns.

Resources led the pack at 11,78% m/m, Industrials closed at 1,02% m/m, and Financials lagged somewhat at 0,38% m/m. Domestically exposed property stocks and insurers experienced the most direct impact from the unrest. They were unsurprisingly among the biggest losers for the month, contributing to the poor performance of the Financial sector. The SA Reserve Bank (SARB) left repo rates unchanged in its monthly meeting, as cash (STeFI) continues to give mediocre performances in a low-interest-rate environment (0,32% m/m). South African value managers (5,62% m/m) outperformed growth managers (2,74% m/m), while globally, the opposite outcome occurred.

The rand witnessed a rollercoaster month due to the social unrest experienced, which in turn did no favours to the risk sentiment of the local currency. As a result, it unsurprisingly closed weaker against most major currencies in July. The rand lost as much as 3,02% against the sterling, followed by 2,39% and 2,38% against the US dollar and euro, respectively. Furthermore, it weakened 1,12% against the Japanese yen.
